WALL STREET SHOWS 'EM BALL

STATE STREET PUT UNDER BY A SCORE OF 14 TO S.

Last Year It Was 10 to 0, but Greenway. the 1994 Pitcher, Has Since Acquired a Glass Arm and Was Rusticated to Left Field-Boston Tied the Score Once.

For the second time in the history of the world the ballplayers of the Boston Stock Exchange yesterday tried to beat the ball players of the New York Exchange Last year the score was 10 to 0 in favor of New York. This year it was 14 to 8, there being less twirling skill and more slugging

The game was played on the American League grounds and brought out a crowd such as the Yankees would be glad to face any day. All the young brokers, the old baseball fans of Broad street and the office boys were on hand, and most of them brought women, making it rather a social affair. The fact that admission was free had nothing to do with the case.

The Boston bunch came from home on Friday night on a Fall River boat. Scores of Boston financiers neglected copper stocks to accompany the team. The boat was met by a committee from the New York Exchange made up of C. F. Knoblauch, Billy Oliver, J. F. Carlisle, J. F. Wainwright and Richard King. The committee took the victims to the New York Athletic Club for luncheon, and there the Bostonians dressed for the game. There was no foolish costuming, for the game was to be in deadly earnest. Most of the Boston men were oldtime players at Harvard, and they had the sweaters and other garb of their college days. C. J. Paine and F. H. Hovey wore days. C. J. Paine and F. H. Hovey wore the "H" over their hearts. They got the long Harvard cheer when they marched out on the Yankees' lot, but the cheer had to be repeated when the New Yorks appeared, for Bob Wrenn of tennis fame, who played second base for the locals, also wore the crimson initial. George Greenway, player of football and baseball at Yale, and later a Rough Rider, showed a lig "Y" on his old baseball shirt. So did A. L. Norris, the New York's catcher. Fincke, the pitcher, wore a Harvard shirt. It was largely a Harvard game, most of the Bostonians being from John's educational entporium, yet there was a small showing for Georgetown and the Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn.

The last time the rivals met, Greenway pitched New York to victory, but since then his arm has turned to glass and he was obliged to go into left field. Paine, who started off in the box for Boston, is a famous Harvard pitcher, and he had the services behind the bat of J. B. Hubbard, who was his backstop at college five years ago.

It looked bad for Boston from the start. The Beansters could hit Fincke only to the extent of a few captured flies. Then the New Yorkers went in and got two suns off Paine. They tallied another in the second inning, after blanking Boston. Boston couldn't score in the third, but New York did, thanks to a three base hit which the fat Broker Freeland sent to left field, scoring on Norris's hit.

Boston's psychological moment came in the fourth inning, when the Harvard graduates made four runs, tying the score. The local team could not get a run in this inning, and when the Bostons made two tallies in their half of the fifth there was moaning from the Wall Street crowd and cheers from the bunch from Boston. It did not last long. Wall Street came to bat and Jewell's single was turned into a run by a heavy hit by Freeland. He came home on Norris's hi to the fence and, with other good work, four runs were made. the "H" over their hearts. They got the and Jewell's single was turned into a run by a heavy hit by Freeland. He came home on Norris's hi to the fence and, with other good work, four runs were made.

Boston made a couple of runs after that, but never had the New Yorkers in trouble. The teams played the full nine innings, always very serious, and the growd did not begin its race for the subway station, nine blocks distant until after 6 o'clock.

Among those who came from Boston for the game were F. G. Davis, D. M. Smith, R. B. Wiggin, C. H. Knapp, J. W. Bowen, George T. Rice, J. F. Sheldon, Charles E. Robbins, W. B. Stearns, F. W. Welsh, George F. Lord, H. B. Long, George L. Baldwin, G. M. Towle, G. C. Fairchild, A. C. Raymond, George A. Fernand, H. M. Leland, H. O. Poor, Theodore Hastings, F. W. Parker, W. B. Rogers, S. R. Will, William Appleton, P. W. Wrenn, W. P. Harris, Walter Jackson, H. H. Gay, G. F. Gridley, W. W. Will, Charles Harding, Walter Jackson, H. H. Gay, G. F. Gridley, W. W. W. B. Rogeley, W. M. W. H. F. Colwell, H. K. White, I. F. Harding, Walter Jackson, H. H. Gay, G. F. Gridley, A. W. Hill, Charles Hayden, Waldo W. Merrill, A. C. Anthony, S. R. Dow, Homer Goodwin, S. H. Bennett, C. H. Burnham, Jr., J. S. Fay, 3d., S. H. Blake and Winthrop

To mention the names of the New York Exchange men who saw the game would be to print most of the exchange directory.

AM BOOLE,
NEW YORK.				BOSTON.
	. H	. P.				H	. P.	A -	F
Runyon, ss.0	1	0	4	1	Hubbard, c. 0	0	7	1	1
Wrenn, 2b., 2	2	4	.0	2	Bradlee.cf 3b2	1	0	0.	1
Greenway 1f1	0	3	- 1	-0	Hayes, 3b-p.2	1	2	2	1
Lowell, 3b 0	1	4	2		Paine, p-cf0	0	0.	4	0
Fish. rf 1	1	2	0	0	Hovey, 88 1	0	3	10	0
Jewell, cf1	1	0	0	2	Foster, 1b 1	1	9	1	0
Frecland.10.4	2	- 8	0	0	Phillips, 2b . 1	1	1	- 1	1
Fincke, p 2	2	1	1		Whitney, cf 1		0	0	2
Norris, c 2	2	9	1	0	Potter, 2b0	1	2	0	1
B. Norris.cf 1		1	0		1-8	down last	-	-	-
Wilcox, ss 0	0	0	0	1	Totals 8	6.	24	9	7
Totals14	12	27	9	6

Last night the teams had a dinner at Sherry's, with vaudeville. W. B. Oliver was toastmaster.

DOG LOST, MAN FOUND.

Coroner Scholer Doesn't Get His $5, However, Owing to the Sergeant.

Coloner Scholer paid $5 for a greyhound last November and two weeks later he lost it, when its rightful owner turned up and said it had been stolen. Scholer didn't know the name of the man from whom he bought it or where to find him. The Coroner was on his way home last night when he spotted the man at Broad-way and Forty-eighth street. He ran up to Boundsman Brady of the West Fortyseventh street station and said: There he is! Arrest him!"

ho, and what will I arrest him for?" asked the cop.
"That's the fellow that sold me that $5 dog that he didn't own," said Scholer.

Brady arrested the man.

In the West Forty-seventh street station the prisoner gave the name of David Courtney. He offered to repay the Coroner the $5 that had been paid for the dog, and Scholer was willing to call it square if he got his money back. The desk sergent couldn't see it in that light and held Courtcouldn't see it in that light and held Court-

BAD HAZLETON SCHOLARS.

and Alter Records.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., May 13.-Scholars in the Hazleton schools are causing much excitement. Last night two of them who had been thrashed had Principal Christopher Fagan arrested for assault and held under $900 bail. It has also been discovered that the high school has been broken into and the yearly record of a number of stu-dents altered, the original figures being erased with acid and the averages raised, in some cases as much as 30 per cent. On in some cases as much as 30 per cent. but changes have been made in the standing of some of the brightest girls in the classes, evidently with the intention of diverting Mayor George B. McClellan has accepted the invitation to deliver the address to the senior class of Fordham College at their graduation on June 21. It is probable that Gov. Higgins will preside at the exercises. LIVE TOPICS ABOUT TOWN.

At the session of the Legislature just ended a constituent of Assemblyman Young, who represents Abe Gruber's district, politely requested him to introduce a little bill repealing a chapter of the laws of a former year. Mr. Young is a lawyer and inclined to be skeptical, but he is also affable and his anability overcame his incredulity. Well acquainted with the man who made the request, he readily consented to father the measure.

Mr. Young was only saved from introducing the joke bill of the session by the clerk, whom he requested to prepare a proper title for the bill. The clerk found that the chapter repealed by the bill was the penal cope. politely requested him to introduce a little

It is not so bad for "Three Musketeers" to walk abreast upon the pavement, as in "Trilby," but four musketeers in a row rather block traffic. Coming up behind such a group the other day, it was some-thing of a surprise to hear one of the rank saying:

"I think the mistake is in throwing the ideal too high. Now, I say, don't ever throw an ideal too high, for you won't get it. What I believe in is, don't have any ideal."

No wander the disciples of such a philos

No wonder the disciples of such a philosophic leader were all ranged in rank beside him, for who could bear to walk in the rear and possibly lose some accents of

They were all to have a Sunday night supper at a friend's house, and even the boarding mistress was invited; so the girl got an extra Sunday night out and the household split up into parties for the

By twos and threes they arrived at the host's home until there were left only the coarding mistress and the husband of the woran who had engineered the party. There was a quarter hour wait, and at last

There was a quarter hour wait, and at last the husband strolled in.

"Miss Blank says she can't come," he announced, as he sniffed the odor of the oldfashioned shortcake. "I guess she must have another of her sick headaches, for she seems to have gone to bed; just poked her head out of the doorway and said she was sorry."

Late that evening the other woman took home a generous slice of shortcake and found the absent one sitting, disconsolate, in the parlor.

in the parlor.

"I thought you were ill?" she cried. "Will said you had gone to bed."

"My dear," sobbed the boarding mistress, "all my dresses button up the back, and when I started to get ready the only person in the place was your husband. I couldn't very well ask him, could I?"

And the only comfort she received was:
"Why not? I've trained him to do it beautifully."

*Owners of office buildings and large esidences in this town seem to think that they need not put numbers on their buildthey need not put numbers on their buildings," said the man from Boston. "I come to New York on business about once a month and it seems to me that about one-half of that time is spent asking for the number I want. A building may occupy a whole block, covering, say, a dozen lots, yet the door will bear but a single number, and you have to walk to the middle of the next block to find some other number before you can locate the object of your search. This is caused more than half the time by the ignorance of the employees of the buildings in question, for few know the numbers covered by their building."

"That's the last time I shall ever act as social mentor," said the nervous woman. "When Mazie was married she came to me for advice. I ordered her wedding an-me for advice. I ordered her wedding announcements, gave her tips about her trousseau, told her what she was expected to provide and what the bridegroom paid for and did all those little things.

"I went to the wedding, and I must say that I could not see the effects of my careful coaching. Now that she was married I knew she would want to drop a lot of what she called her 'table d'hôte' best boys, who used to take her out to supper Sunday evenings.

who used to take her out to supper Sunday evenings.

"Remember, Mazie,' I warned as I was leaving. 'When you come back from your trip, send cards to all those whom you wish to have call. But if there are any whom you want to drop just forget to send them a card and that is all.'

"Well?" asked the friend.

"I received no card," was the waft. "I had taught her how to cut me."

hat business," said an Interborough conductor. "The windows in the trains, lowering from the top, leave the passengers' hats just on a level with the open space. A pretty stiff draft is created merely by the motion of the train, but when an express passes a local it's good-by to all the hats that are dislodged by the subway zephyrs. I know of a dozen felt hats lost in one trip from the Bridge to Harlem. Of course, straw hats will sail much more readily."

A question of identity yesterday in the Children's Court brought out a peculiar bit of evidence. The witness, a middle aged man, produced from an inside pocket the silver nameplate from a coffin. The evioce was accepted as conclusive. But why do you carry that thing?" asked

"Well," said the witness, "you see, she was my mother-in-law. She committed suicide. I had her cremated after her friends saw her in the coffin.

They looked very young and had evidently been married but a short time. She was going away and he went to the train to see her off. They waited outside the gate until the very last moment, then both tried to go by the gateman on Too late to see the lady on the train," said the gateman after the young woman had passed him.

He stood a minute and looked longingly at her through the fence, then this idea strong him.

struck him.

"Come up here, dear," he said, and they squeezed one kiss through the pickets to the delight of the other passengers.

"Well, I got it, didn't 1?" he said to the

"What is your defense?" asked the Magistrate of the prisoner accused of assault, "Your Honor," was the reply, "the other man begun it by usin' very profound language against me."
"Provocation enough," decided the Court.
"Prisoner discharged."

It was noon and the stenographers of the Health Department were preparing to go to lunch. A stranger entered the elevator and went to the fourth floor. He passed through the long corridor and was about to turn into the messengers' apartment, when something in a rear room caught his eye. A tiny flame was springing up from the floor, just in front of a big desk. Evidently a gas pipe had sprung a leak and the gas made a rush for the blaze, stamped He made a rush for the blaze, stamped his foot vigorously, and it was out.

At the same moment a feminine voice cried, "How dare you!" and he turned to confront a woman who stood in front of a mirror behind the door, with a lock of her front hair in her hand. He looked once more at what had been the blaze. Then he saw a tiny jet projecting from the floor and the curling iron his foot had crushed.

"Oh! I beg your pardon," he said, and was gone.

A woman was walking in Central Park with a big dog in leash and trying at the same time to shove a baby coach. The dog strained ahead so that he almost pulled strained ahead so that he almost pulled the woman over the coach, and she was at her wits' end. Finally she solved the problem by tying the dog to the coach. Thereafter all she had to do was to act as a brake, which she found so easy that she never thinks of going out with the baby any more without the dog. The sight of the dog pulling the coach never falls to please the children who happen to be in the paris when the dog team passes.

HAAS BROS.

Spring and Summer Clearing Sale of their

Exclusive imported Gowns and Waists.

25, 27, 29 West 31st St.

COURT DENOUNCES BELLEVUE

FOR ALLOWING LAWYERS TO DIS-TURB ACCIDENT PATIENTS.

'Ambulance Chasing' Carried Too Far. Justice O'Gorman Points Out, and Al lows Injured Cabman to Change Lawyer-Scandalous Conditions Alleged

In granting to Mark Harrington, a cabman who is suing the city for damages for personal injuries, an order authorizing n to change his attorneys, Supreme Court Justice O'Gorman took occasion vesterday to denounce the practise of allowing ambulance chasing lawyers and their representatives to pursue their trade at the bedside of patients in the accident wards of Bellevue Hospital.

"The undisputed facts on this motion," he says, "if they are accepted as true, disclose the existence of a scandalous conclose the existence of a scandalous condition in Bellevue Hospital which justly exposes those in authority in that institution to the gravest censure. The plaintiff was subjected to the importunities of this person [meaning T. Ignazio Reves, in whose hands Harrington first placed his suit] as soon as the doctors completed their initial examination. Reves represented himself as the president of the People's Legal Aid Society and the regular attorney and counsellor for the hospital. He intimated that a failure to give him the case would cause friction with the attendants, and, considering his apparent authority and the liberty he enjoyed in the building in the presence of the attendants and others, it is not surprising that he succeeded in securing the patient's signature to a paper authorizing him to commence suit and fixing the attorney's compensation at 50 per cent. of the recovery.

"Reves is not a lawyer, but appears to have some business relations with one Alexander Melhado, who is an attorney, and who, thereafter, in consideration, it is claimed, of $100 and a share of the attorney's fees, turned over the case to one Delehanty, whom the plaintiff has never seen, but who appears as his attorney of record. I am quite satisfied the original authorization was procured by a species of deceit and duress at a time when the plaintiff was in a state of physical collapse and incapacitated from attending to business.

"According to the uncontradicted averments in the papers this is not an isolated instance of gross injustice to a patient while entitled to the care and protection of the hospital authorities. Every day during the period of plaintiff's confinement the said Reves was permitted to visit the wards of the hospital and harass the newly arrived patients with solicitation of authority to commence suits. The toleration of such a discreditable practise, if it exists, and it is hoped that the papers do not correctly portray conditions in that institution, is subversive of the rights of the care and relief of the dition in Bellevue Hospital which justly exposes those in authority in that institu-

one of the wheels slipping into a hole in an asphalt pavement. His leg was broken and his suit is for $10,000 damages. In view of the circumstances, Justice O'Gorman exempts him from the penalty of paying costs up to date, which is the gen-eral condition imposed on a litigant seeking to change his counsel.

M'KEON HOMESTEAD DOOMED. Cottages and Peach Tree and Pear Tree

The McKeon homestead, a Harlem andmark, has passed into the hands of the Hudson Realty Company, and the gardens and frame cottages will now have to give way to modern flats. The homestead is at the northwest corner of Lexington avenue and 123d street and ecupies half the block on the avenue and fifty feet on the street.

Peter McKeon settled there forty odd years ago, when Harlem was a suburb and he built on the ground a couple of frame cottages, in one of which he lived and reared a numerous progeny. Back of the cottages was the garden, and to this day there remain several trees, among them a peach and a pear tree, both of which still furnish a fair supply of fruit. Of late the premises have been occupied by John H. Nagle, who married the youngest daughter of Peter McKeon. The elder McKeons have been dead some years.

MME. CAVANNO ARRESTED.

Gave Detective Cohen Love Powders and

a Happy Future. Madame Loretta Isabella Gonzales Cavanno, otherwise Mary Callaban, a seeress who knows all love powders and lucky who knows all love powders and lucky stones, and who has given tips on horseraces and future events in general, was arrested yesterday at her home, 238 Bergen street. Brooklyn, on a charge of swindling the public. Complaint was received from a woman in Bath Beach that her domestic was being driven almost insane by love rowders and directions given her by fornowders and directions given her by for-une tellers in her endeavor to force the ove of a certain young man in the neighbor-nood. She mentioned Madame Cavanno, and the detectives were sent to investigate.

Detective Cohen had his fortune told by the secress and was informed that he was soon to marry a handsome young woman, with money, and that the result of the marriage would be very happy. As the detective has seven little and big Cohens and a handsome wife already, he did not think much of the prediction. The secress assured him that his business was that of a proculetor and that he was a fatilist. peculator and that he was a fatalist. all this information she demanded $1.37 and gave him a love powder with instrucns as to when it was to be taken In spite of the assurance of Madame that f any person injured her she would call down all the curses of the black art upon the down all the curses of the black art upon the unfortunate individual, the detectives arrested her and seized a wagon load of printed circulars and typewritten directions for the lovesick. Among the literature seized were hundreds of letters from all parts of the country asking for advice, in response to advertisements in local papers. She was held for examination.

She was held for examination Conte Carlo, in Tears, Held for Trial. Raggi, Conte Carlo, the distinguished foreigner who left Le Bolt & Co.'s jewelry store, 54 West Twenty-third street, Thursday afternoon, with a $1,500 brooch in his glove, was arraigned before Magistrate Cornell in Jefferson Market court yesterday morning weeping copiously. He waived examination, and was held in $3,000 ball for trial in the Court of General Sessions.

Schold, Constable & Co

Lyons Black Silks,

Complete assortments of the various new weaves.
Black Taffetas, chiffon finish	yar
Black Messalines 1.00 to 1.50	16
Black India Silk, waterproof	46
Black Chiffon Faille	"
Black Figured Chiffon Taffetas, Peaude Cygne 1.25 to 1.50	"

MONDAY, MAY 15TH.

Women's Furnishings. WOMEN'S PETTICOATS, Paris made, striped Dimity and Percale, plaited ruffle. Regularly $3.00....... WOMEN'S PETTICOATS, Mercerized Sateen, Brown and White and Blue and White Checks. Regularly $4.00. 3.00 WOMEN'S PETTICOATS, Taffeta Silk, hemstitched flounce, Black and colors. Regularly $7.50 .....

WOMEN'S PETTICOATS, India Silk, full flounce,

Pink, Light Blue, White or Black. Regularly $8.00 5.75 HIGH CLASS IMPORTED PETTICOATS. Elaborately Trimmed, Variety of Colors. One-Third to One-Half Less Than Formerly.

Women's Suits.

TAILOR SUITS, Plaid Mohair, Eton Model	25.00
TAILOR SUITS, Light weight, French Fabrics	32.50
TAFFETA SUITS, variety of colors and styles	32.50
BLACK CANVAS SKIRTS, Plaited, Silk lined	17.50

MODEL GOWNS AND WRAPS, the remainder of our own direct importation of models in Fancy Fabrics, Nets, Crepe de Chine, and Foulard, at Marked Reductions in Prices.

SUMMER WOOL BLANKETS, Fine qualities, light weight.

EXCEPTIONAL VALUES:
Single bed size	4.25 pair
Double bed size	5.25 pair
Extra large size	6.50 pair
COMFORTABLES, Wool filled, Yap Silk borders	5.00 each

Broadway & 19th Street

EAGER COPS ON THE SCENT Of a Big Diamond Theft at Sea Find Only a Sad French Watter. The chief steward of the steamer Bermudian, which made port from Bermuda yesterday, telephoned from Quarantine to Police Headquarters that there had been diamond robbery aboard.

Detectives Sheehan and Galvan were detailed on the case. Thrilled with the prospect of solving a big international robbery, they rushed to Pier 47 and leaped aboard as soon as the Bermudian docked. They found S. Lamoreaux, a French waiter, engaged in exploding. Between detonations he told the detectives that some t-r-r-raitorous fellow waiter had stolen his $70 diamond ring and $38 in cash. Before leaving Bermuda he rolled his runk, which contained the valuables, into a compartment in the hold, which the waiters use for a lounging room. That afternoon, he found his trunk broken open and his ring and money gone. The police of Bermuda were notified, but failed to score. On the voyage, Lamoreaux made up his mind that one of the waiters did it.

"Which one?" asked the detectives. "Any one!" roared the waiter. "A-rrest of them looked guilty, the detectives hurt La noreaux's feelings by refusing.

WANTS VAN VLECK TO MARRY HER Says He Asked Her.-She Asked Him, Too

-Suggested Alternative, $10,000. William D. Van Vleck, who is said to live at the Hotel Astor and to deal extensively a summons and complaint in an action brought against him by Miss Winifred May Cavanaugh for $10,000 for breach of May Cavanaugh for $10,000 for breach of promise of marriage. She alleges that she met Van Vleck, who is a member of the New York Athletic Club and of the Montclair Club, in January, 1903, and that in the following November he proposed and was accepted. He bas failed, however, she says, to marry her, although she has asked birs to

Miss Cavanaugh's lawyers have in their ossession 2 large number of letters which is alleged, Van Vleck wrote to the girl

They are addressed to "Dear Baby," and My Little Girl."

In one of these the writer assures his "sweetheart" that there is no reason to worry over the fact that his stocks have dropped; they will go up again, he says, and then Winifred and he will have money

van Vleck has not yet put in an answer

FIGHTING CONSUMPTION HOME. Residents Near Proposed Site Apply for an Injunction.

Lawyer I. W. Jacobson, backed by 100 petitioners, has applied for a temporary junction restraining the Health Board of the city of New York from opening a home for tuberculosis patients at 75 Henry street, Brooklyn, to-morrow morning. The petitioners hope to show cause why a perhome for tuberculosis patients at 75 Henry street, Brooklyn, to-morrow morning. The petitioners hope to show cause why a permanent injunction should be granted. The papers are returnable before Supreme Court Justice Marean on Monday. Mr. Jacobson himself lives with his family of several children at 67 Pineapple family of several children at 67 Pineapple street, just around the corner from the proposed location for the new home.

Dr. John Billings of the Communicable Disease Department of the Health Board selected the Henry street location, and it is said he defends his plan on the ground that there are already a number of these homes in Manhattan doing good work among the unfortunates and not in any among the unfortunates and not in any

MODEL GETS SCULPTOR'S MONEY James Stanley Connor's Will Admitted to

Surrogate Church, in Brooklyn, admitted to probate yesterday the will of the late James Stanley Connor, who died in Italy in November. The bulk of the estate, valued at $100,000, most of which is in Brooklyn, was left to an Italian woman who had been the testator's model. Mr. Connor's relatives contested the will, and a commission which was sent to Italy to take testimony submitted its report to the Sur-rogate two weeks ago.

Van Ingen Building Still 160 Although Borough President Ahearn changed a few days ago the number of the Van Ingen Building from 180 Fifth avenue to 158, Supreme Court Justice MacLean handed down a decision yesterday granting to E. H. Van Ingen & Co. an order restraining the Hudson Realty Company from assuming the number 180, and enjoining Mr. Ahearn from depriving the Van Ingen Building of number 180, which it has better, for many Year.

Coaching parties have been an enjoyable feature in the past week's social calendar, varied with visits to the Brooklyn Horse Show and Belmont Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid are now being especially entertained in view of their departure for England on Saturday week, May 27. On Friday night they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. McK. Twombly at their country home, Madison, N. J.

There were some arrivals during the past week of prominent people who have been abroad for the Easter season, and others are expected this week. Some of the Newport cottage set will fail this week on shopping trips and will be back six or eight weeks hence. Many cards will be sent out this week for June weddings.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont, who have been staying for some days past with August Belmont at his home, Hempstead, L. I., and who were previously the guests there of Mrs. James L. Kernochan, will be among the many sailing on the Coronia on Tuesday. They will be absent from six to eight weeks.

Among those booked to sail on Tuesday for Europe on the Coronia are Mrs. Van-Henry Smith, Mrs. W. Rhinelander Stewart Henry Smith, Mrs. W. Rhinelander Stewart Miss Anita Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Seymour L. Cromwell and Mrs. Samuel Penniman. Mr. and Mrs. W. Bayard Cutting will sail on Saturday on the St. Louis. Their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bayard Cutting, Jr., who have been in California, returned to town a few days

Lewis Butler Preston, in anticipation of his marriage to Miss Mabel McAfee next Tuesday, gave his bachelor dinner last night at Delmonico's. His guests included night at Delmonico's. His guests included his brother, George Preston, James Ben Ali McAfee, brother of the bride-elect; Henry Rogers Winthrop, I. Townsend Burden, Jr., William P. Burden, J. Doddridge Peet, Jr., and Phenix Ingraham, of this city; Percy Haughton and Willing Spencer, of Philadelphia, and Walter L. Cutting of Pittsfield, Mass. Mr. Preston is a son of the late George Rutledge Preston, and comes of an old Louisiana family. He was graduated from Harvard five years ago. graduated from Harvard five years ago.

Mrs. Charles F. Hoffman, Mr. Preston's rich widowed sister, who was Miss Zelia Preston, is one of the many relatives who will attend the wedding. She has done a deal of entertaining since she left off her mourning. Her late husband's father, the late Rev. Charles F. Hofman, who was a brother of Dean Hoffman, was the rector of All Angels' Church, in West End avenue, and in 1890 rebuilt the edifice at his own expense. The present rector, the Rev. De Lancey Townsend, sailed last week, with his wife, for his annual European vaca-

Lord and Lady Trayner, Sir Charles and nessy and Miss Shaughnessy reached

One of the most notable of May wedand Edward Sturges Hosmer on the afternoon of Thursday week, May 25, at Grace noon of Thursday week, May 25, at Grace Church. The bride is a daughter of the late Col. Johnston Livingston de Peyster, one time a governor of the Union Club and long associated with the Knickerbocker Club. The De Peyster homestead is at Tivoli-on-the-Hudson. The De Peysters have passed some winters in Washington, where they have had a house in Connecticut avenue of late verse.

Mrs. Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte sailed on Thursday for Europe and will pass the summer with her son-in-law and daughter, Count and Countess von Moltke, who visited her at Washington last winter. Jerome B-naparte, her son, went abroad some

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lehr, who are again in town after a four months European trip, in town after a four months European trip, are likely to be in evidence with the New York contingent at the Baltimore Horse Show, which opens on Wednesday. The hunt ball will be a feature of the week there. Mr. Lehr has two sisters, Mrs. John Morton and Miss Frances Lehr, who are abroad, and his mother, Mrs. Robert Lehr, lives in Chase street near Charles, Baltimore.

of the season will be that on Tuesday of Misa Adele Carstensen and John Nelson MoJilton Shreve. The ceremony will be performed at the country home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Carstensen, Old Orchard Lodge, Scarsdale-on-the-Hudson. The bride will be attended by Miss Mabel Estelle Adams as maid of honor and by the Misses Lucille Vantine Bacon, Lillian Fraser,

Le Boutillier Brothers HIGH GRADE LACES

Including an extensive assortment of Novelties and exclusive designs in Mauresque, Point a l'Aiguille, Broderie, Princesse, Irish Grochet, Lierre, Mechlin, Appilque Francaise, Seed Paysanne, Malinee, Point Gaze and other styles of Net Laces in Allover Nets, Flouncing, Galloons, &c. Bandings to match.

SPECIAL.

While and Cream SOFT DRAPERY NETS, 45 inches, round, square, spring and diamond effects,

69C. and 98C., values 98c. and $1.25

Cream and White FLOUNCING LACES, 9 inches, suitable for regularly 35c.

An immense assoriment of WASH LACES and INSERTIONS, all widths; Allobers and Medallions to match.

A large variety of narrow GERMAN LACES and INSERTIONS. now so much in aemand; matched widths.

WOMEN'S NECKWEAR.

Irish Crochet COLLAR and CUFF SETS, various designs, 55c., regular value 75c.

While Linen and Pique COAT SETS, plain and embroidered, 39c. and 55c., regularly 55c. and 75c.

A large assoriment of plain and fancy WASH STOCKS and TOP COLLAR SETS, in English Eyelet, French embroidered and plain Le Boutillier Brothers West Twenty-third Street.

Bornold, Constable & Co Upholstery.

SPECIAL SALE. 20,000 Yards FRENCH AND ENGLISH CRETONNES, PRINTED LINENS AND TAFFETAS, Exclusive Designs and Colorings Suitable for City or Country and Seashore Furnishings.

31 inches wide, 20c 25c 750 yard. 50 inches wide, 1.10 1.25 yard.

Formerly $1.65 Broadway & 19th Street

Florence Foster, Helen A. Ludington, Marie Louise Van Wyck, Hopeton Atterbury and Mary R. S. Shreve, sister of the bridegroom, as bridesmaids. William de Burgh Whyte, of England, will be best man, and among the ushers will be the Messrs. Barstow Smull, Alfred FitzRoy Anderson, Harry Grimes and Rupert W. K. Anderson.

dinner on Friday night, May 19, at Delmonico's, in anticipation of his marriage to Miss Nathalie Wells on May 25 at Delmonio's. Mr. Peters is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Peters of 117 East Thirty-seventh street, who have a country place at Islip. L. I. The bridegroom-elect is a member of the Union, Racquet, Riding and

Mrs. Rhinelander's mother, Mrs. Charles Sands, is in Paris and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Maturin L. Delafield, Jr., are in Switzerland. Miss Serena Rhinelander, the malden aunt of the Messrs. T. J. Oakley Rhinelander, Philip Rhine-lander, Lispenard Stewart and W. Rhine-lander Stewart, makes a new departure this summer, having taken a cottage at Spring Lake, N. J., instead of at Narra-gansett Pier or Newport as heretofore.

Cards are here for the wedding of Miss Mabel Beard and Francis M. Smith, to Cambridge, Mass., with a reception at the home there of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Beard. The bridegroom Mrs. Edward L. Beard. The bridegroom gave his bachelor dinner last night at the

LIFE AT TUXEDO PARK.

Dinners and House Parties at Cottages and Clubbouses-Many New Arrivals. TUXEDO PARK, May 13.-Although the weather was rather disagreeable, a good crowd of society folk visited Tuxedo colony to-day to pass Sunday. A large number Lady Rivers Wilson, Sir Thomas G. Shaugh- of the cottages are now occupied, and next week will find nearly every one taken. Dinners and house parties were given today at a number of cottages and club-

James Henry Smith entertained the members of the coaching club at Kincraig dings will be that of Miss Estelle de Peyster | at dinner last night. They left early this morning on the road coach Defiance for Blairsden, N. J. Among the guests were T. Suffern Tailer, E. Victor Loew, Jr., C. Ledyard Blair, E. T. H. Talmage, Peter G. Gerry, S. L. E. G. Cromwell, Albert Gould Jennings and Reginald W. Rives. Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Trask entertained a large party at dinner to-night at Trayaddo.

> where they will spend the summer. Among others who entertained guests at Among others who entertained guests at dinner to-night were Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradtey, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Monell, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Havemeyer, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Seton, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Grenville Kane, Mr. and Mrs. Grenville Kane, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Hull and Mrs. and Mrs. George F. Baker. Mrs. George Lorillard Ronalds gave a tea and reception at Turtle Point this afternoon for Miss Grizelda Hull, to celebrate the announcement of her engagement to Capt. Hobson. Nearly all of the cottage set were present.

They will leave next week for Saratoga, set were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley entertained
Lady Alexander of England at their cottage

this week.

Among the cottage arrivals this week were Mr. and Mrs. George F. Baker, at their cottage on East Tuxedo Lake; Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Juilliard, Mrs. Charies W. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. V. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Lavng, Jr., Mrs. W. H. Young and Mr. and Mrs. Forsyth Wickes.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Dinsmore, Jr., will arrive next week at the Waldo cottage, just vacated by Mr. and Mrs. J. Chauncey McKeever, who have gone to Southampton for the summer, and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Rogers, Jr., will arrive at the Walker Smith cotteg, vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Trevore who have returned to town. Other arrivals at cottages next week will include Mr. and Mrs. P. Lorillard, Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Halsey, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Poor and Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery Hare.

Drink NEW YORK BOTTLING CO.'S LUDIN-RAYNER-BOLEN & BYRNE High Grade GINGER ALE and OTHER

Carbonated EQUAL TO IMPORTED. 40 YEARS' TEST.

The Tuxedo Gun Club held the first shoot of the season at the club this afternoon. Nearly all of the members were present. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pierson, Jr., will close heir cottage next week and go abroad or the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mortimer, who are now in Paris, will return to Tuxedo early next month and open their Tuxedo villa for the summer.

Lewis Butler Freeton, who is to marry
Miss Mabel McAfee, niece of J. B. Harrin, next week in New York, gave a farewell bachelor dinner at the clubhouse to-night, bachelor dinner at the clubhouse to-night, followed by a vaudeville performance. The dinner was served in the circular ball-room adjoining the club and the table was tastily decorated with roses and potted plants. Some of the guests present were J. D. Peet, Jr., Phœnix Ingraham, G. R. Preston, Jr., William T. Burden, Frederic Kernochan, J. Townsend Burden, Jr., Walter L. Cutting, Percy D. Haughton and Willing Spencer. Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Carhart and at their cottage to day for the sum-ling Spencer. Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Carhart arrived at their cottage to-day for the summer. Among other arrivals are Lady stexander of Fingland, Mrs. F. B. Keech, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Maxwell, G. W. Van Nest, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Lord, Dr. E. C. Rushmore, Newbold Edgar, R. W. Chandler, Mr. and Mrs F. A. Snew, John Evans of London, Miss Jean Haney, John Evans of London, Miss Jean Haney, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Hancy, Dr. Austin Flint, Miss Lawson, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lawson, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Reis and Miss Reis. Miss Reis.

Washington Society Notes

WASHINGTON, May 18,-The President has issued invitations to the members of the Panama Canal Commission to lunch with him on Monday. They will sail Wednesday instead of Tuesday, their departure having been delayed one day. Mr. and Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish this even-their guests being members of the Diplomatic Corps and official and resident soci-Mr. and Mrs. Fish expect to leave Washington next Friday for their country place at Garrison-on-the-Hudson and will go ing entertained a dinner company of sixty, later to Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry May entertained a dinner company of young people in the Chevy Chase Club, in honor of Miss Alice Roosevelt, daughter of the President. WORK ON CREMATORY STOPPED.

It Can't Go On at Rockaway Until Next Month. Supreme Court Justice Marean in Brooklyn granted a temporary injunction yesterday in the suit of John J. Maloney and M. V. Hauser against the city of New York and Contractor William Nolan, restraining the defendants from continuing the erection of a garbage crematory at Rockaway.

The site of the crematory is in a residential section, it was declared, and there was general objection to its erectival. All work on it must now cease until the trial of the action next month.

Her Eight Brothers Were Her Palibearers, At the funeral of Mrs. Annie Collins, wife of John Collins, yesterday from her home on West Tenth street, Bayonne, N. J., the pallbearers were her eight brothers.